Dear Turner,
On behalf of the NC Woodturning Symposium Board of Directors, I invite you to attend the 2011 NC Woodturning Symposium. The AAW chapters in North Carolina have joined forces to plan an exceptional symposium including 13 international and regional demonstrators. Don't miss out on this unique opportunity! We look forward to meeting you in Greensboro.

Andy Gunning, President

Marilyn Campbell (Canada)
Split Vessel Forms
 Marilyn began turning in 1980 after a boat-building venture with her husband. She uses a combination of wood and epoxy in her work, which allows her to stretch the limitations of traditional woodturning.

Emmet Kane (Ireland)
Sculptural Turnings
 Emmet works out of his workshop in County Kildare. He comes from five generations of Master Carpenters. Emmet is the president of the Irish Woodturners Guild and a board member of the Crafts Council of Ireland.

Mike Mahoney (U.S.)
Bowls, Urns, Threadings
 Mike has turned professionally for most of his adult life. He specializes in making bowls and other utilitarian items. Mike has taught courses internationally and throughout most of the U.S.

Pascal Oudet (France)
Hollow Forms, Texturing
 Pascal began woodturning in 2001 and has been turning professionally since 2006. His work is primarily created on the lathe but also involves much enhancement afterward. His work can be seen in galleries across Europe and the U.S.

Richard Raffan (New Zealand)
Boxes
 Richard began his woodturning career in 1970 in England before relocating to New Zealand in 1983. He is internationally known for his teaching and woodturning publications. He has taught around the world and has authored numerous publications on woodturning.
